

Applications are open to study at the College of Europe

The College of Europe announces the opening of applications for the academic year 2020-2021. Candidates can submit their application until 15 January 2020.

The College of Europe is the oldest institute of postgraduate European studies. It was established in 1949 in Bruges following the Hague Congress. In 1992, on the invitation of the Polish Government, the Natolin campus of the College of Europe was founded in Warsaw. Both campuses bring together each year more than 400 postgraduate students and young professionals from over 50 countries who live, learn and experience Europe together.

Candidates may apply for the following study programmes:

- Advanced MA in European Interdisciplinary Studies (4 specializations in: EU Public Affairs and Policies, The EU in the World, The EU and its Neighbours, European History and Civilization) – Natolin campus
- Advanced MA in European Economic Studies – Bruges campus
- Advanced MA in EU International Relations and Diplomacy Studies – Bruges campus
- Advanced MA in European Political and Governance Studies – Bruges campus
- Advanced Master of European Law (LLM) – Bruges campus

Every year, more than 70% of students admitted to the College of Europe are granted partial or full scholarships by their government, EU institutions or the private sector. In order to apply, candidates must register and submit their online application by 15 January 2020 via admissions.coleurope.eu.
